PRESS RELEASE

Mr. Eric Mauroux appointed as Treasurer of the Cool Chain Association

25th January 2018 - Senningerberg, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg

COOL CHAIN ASSOCIATION A.S.B.L. (CCA) announced that Mr. Eric Mauroux, Director Verticals & Global Head of Perishable at Air France KLM Martinair Cargo, is unanimously appointed Treasurer and Director on the Board of the CCA.

Mr. Mauroux takes over this responsibility from his colleague Mrs. Renate de Walle, who moved into another role at AF/KLM.

The CCA wants to thank Mrs. de Walle for her dedication and valuable contributions, wishing her success and fun in her new position.

Eric Mauroux is a highly respected professional in the air cargo industry, with an impressive international career. In his current role as Director Verticals, Eric has P&L responsibility for the Perishables Business Unit of Air France-KLM. Through the various regional cargo management positions he has held in South-East Asia, India, Mexico & Central America and in South America, Eric has developed an in-depth knowledge of the supply chain and a sound understanding of the international perishable business, which will be a strong asset for our Association.

About the Cool Chain Association (<http://coolchain.org>)

*The CCA is a non-profit organization, founded in 2003, with the aim of synchronizing the cool supply chain in order to improve the quality of perishables and temperature sensitive products (PTSP) and thus prolong their shelf life and reduce wastage. Its members come from a wide range of different industries across the world and are all active in the supply chain for perishables of all kinds.
