

Press Release
18th May 2006

Insurance and CCQI

The Cool Chain Association (CCA) was able to win Mr. Hans-Christoph Enge, Executive Board of Lampe & Schwartze to speak at the Cool Chain Meeting in Hamburg, Germany, May 22-23.

Hans-Christoph Enge is a lawyer by education. After finishing his legal studies in Hamburg where he specialized in maritime and marine insurance law, he worked for various shipping and insurance companies in New York, London, and Paris. Enge is also active in various committees of insurance – and marine insurance associations and is co-author of specialist marine insurance law books.

He is now one of the managing partners responsible for marine and transport activities of Lampe & Schwartze. This company, which was founded in 1858, has 150 employees and is a special insurance provider for commercial and industrial risks.

As one of the largest marine underwriting companies in Europe, it carries large insurance capacities and specialist know-how in all classes of marine insurance.

Experience and expertise enables Lampe & Schwartze to service even large international marine accounts, specifically commodity cargo and liability related risks.

For more information about Lampe & Schwartze, visit www.lampe-schwartze.de

The Cool Chain Association is a non-profit organization and more details on the AGM/Workshop, as well as membership details, can be found on the CCA website: www.coolchain.org

For further information, contact:
Cool Chain Association
Secretary
Phone: +49 421 2581 943
Fax: +49 421 2581 944
E-mail: sec@coolchain.org